Aren't you the one who used to call me names
Aren't you the one who used to play me games
Weren't you the one who said he'd never fall
Now you're the one who's crying not so tall

Oh I know what it's like
It's happened many times to me
Oh do you ache inside
Your eyes wanna cry
You want me back again

Yes you're the one
Should I throw you a crumb
Should I come and pass you by
Would that make you wanna try
Should I come and kiss your lips
Would that make your game slip
Shall I come and dry your eyes
Would that make you realize

Oh I know what it's like
It's happened many times to me
Oh do you ache inside
Your eyes wanna cry
You want me back again

Aren't you the one who used to call me names
Aren't you the one who used to play me games
Weren't you the one who used to run and hide
Now you're the one who's crying way inside

Oh I know what it's like
It's happened many times to me
Oh do you ache inside
Your eyes wanna cry
You want me back again
