Look out your window
The rain is turning into snow
So the time has come you know
You must decide to stay or go

Oh how you love me
Sweet summer blue and gold
Will you stay with me
Long winters gray and cold

Go love, open up the door
You'll see the winds aren't warm anymore
The birds we heard all summer long
Were chased away by winter storm

Oh how you love me
Sweet summer blue and gold
Will you stay with me
Long winters gray and cold

Tell me with just a word
If you're going to stay, love
We'll wait the winter out
And when summer comes we'll play, love

Oh how you love me
Sweet summer blue and gold
Will you stay with me
Long winters gray and cold
