"Wings"

Although he's spoken many times before
At sight of birth he leaves me by a door
And now I know he doesn't understand
And all I need is the warmth of his hand

And if he'd smile my loving blood would dance
One silent kiss leaves me in a trance
And now I know I cannot live alone
And now I know my future is unknown
One day the questions die
On the wings of time I'll fly

And on that day my laughs and tears will rise
And fall as free as seabirds climb the skies
And I will love when love comes my way
And when it does there's nothing more to say
And now I know I don't need his hand
And now I know I don't have to understand
Some day the questions die
On the wings of chance I'll fly
