It's where we like to dine because the food's just fine it's the best place in town to fill up then get down the chinese restaurant is where we have sung the worthy praises of mao tse tung the chinese restaurant is where we like to dine all that you can eat for $3.69 got a big bowl of beef chow mien burns my soul to the core the chinese restaurant is our great wall we;d like to tell you where it is -- our place to eat but it's [insert your own witty ad-lib conversation here] we couldn't tell you much about tianenman square but we've tried the egg foo yung (at feat few have dared)

the chinese restaurant is where we like to dine
all that you can eat for $3.69
