Jesus my heart belongs to you
But I feel like I failed to be all that I've wanted to
So here I am
With not much to give to you

I won't waste this time
I'm coming back to you
I won't waste this time
And I'm on my knees
I won't waste this time
I won't - I need
I won't waste this time

Jesus I'm lifeless far from you
Forgive me for waiting
To believe in the grace you've offered me
I'm surrendered
And here I am with not much to give to you

A rush of words too small to thank you
But I've been so consumed by your unending love
How do I even begin to repay
My life is yours
