Keep your hands on the wheel boy tell me all that you feel boy all that you're feeling inside I don't want to have to wake up just to find out that I'm breaking up find out that I'm breaking up inside

It's all in the past now nothing's ever gonna last now nothing's ever meant last now

I've got my hands tied together just keeping in the rainy weather keeping in the rainy weather inside I don't wanna have to grow old no, I don't wanna have to be told I don't wanna have to unfold my life

It's all in the past now
nothing's ever gonna last now

all that you're feeling inside
