Hanna Hanna, she sing
mixed emotion and a garden strange Hanna Hanna, she sing

We're living on a catwalk, catwalk and swimming with the sharks

Tape record her and telephone conversations in pyramids alone Why should I stop to think what they're about why should I stop, stop to think what they're about We're living on a catwalk, catwalk
and swimming with the sharks biting into poison, poison in a city all full of fucking sharks

She sing a guitar plays in a garden strange

Hanna Hanna, she dream
mixed emotion and a garden strange she never there, she never there Hanna Hanna, she dream
