No sense of pride
no time to care
no problem solved
and no lesson learned Saint Saviour Square
and no one I know should live there and no one I know dare not care no danger of work
no work to be found
no real incentive
to pull this place down

Saint Saviour Square
should live there and no one I know dare not care and no one I know and no one I know

Idle gaze of us all
we are so far removed this distance created

is one we all use

dare not care should live there and no one I know dare not

The world knows no shame as we all walk away
no hope is inspired
no progress is made

dare not care and no one
