Wake up to the sound of young love uprising
kicking and fighting
in this world of no restraint

young love uprising
kicking and fighting
for they know no other way

Buddy, I know she said (?)
satisfied with loving XXXX and forgotten
in this world of no restraint

We do the same
different ways
no XXXX no shame
we take no blame
we do the same
What's with all the tears you know nothing ain't easy I could be wrong, I could be dreaming
in this world of no restraint

Whatcha get for thinking work hard and try your best one hard earned happiness
in this world of no restraint

different ways
no XXXX no shame
despite all XXXX
we do the same different ways
we do the same
