I get along without you very well
Of course, I do

Except when soft rains fall
And drip from leaves, then I recall
The thrill of being sheltered in your arms
Of course, I do

But I get along without you very well
I've forgotten you just like I should
Of course, I have

Except to hear your name
Or someone's laugh that is the same
But I've forgotten you just like I should

What a guy, what a fool am I
To think my breaking heart could kid the moon
What's in store, should I fall once more
No, it's best that I stick to my tune

I get along without you very well
Of course, I do

Except perhaps in spring
But I should never think of spring
For that would surely break my heart in two

What's in store, should I fall once more
No, it's best that I stick to my tune

I get along without you very well
Of course, I do

Except perhaps in spring
But I should never think of spring
For that would surely break my heart in two
