I could never imagine a boy would love me
But I found a baby, a baby who loves me

Ten years and my dog died and my father was crying
-94 my brother came into my world and all I wished for was a girl
And now I understand what destiny has done to me and it was all good
(And) I could never imagine a boy would love me

I could never imagine a boy would love me
But I found a baby, a baby who loves me
I could never imagine a boy would love me
But I found out lately, when I found my baby

Sixteen and still a virgin and that was all that mattered what was the future when I didn't even know myself
I just lived in a fantasy
And now I understand what destiny has done to me it was all good
And I could never imagine a boy would love me

I could never imagine a boy would love me
But I found a baby, a baby who loves me
I could never imagine a boy would love me
But I found out lately, when I found my baby
(I never thought a boy would love me
I never thought a boy would love me)

I just wanna go, back in time
Just to let her know that she'll be fine
I had the pieces and the puzzle
What was missing was you
To put it all together
To put it all together for me

I could never imagine a boy would love me
But I found a baby, a baby who loves me
I could never imagine a boy would love me

But I found out lately, when I found my baby

(I never thought a boy would love me
I never thought a boy would love me)

Going back in time, going back in time
Tell her she'll be fine

Going back in time, going back in time
Tell her she'll be fine

Going back in time, going back in time
Tell her she'll be fine

Going back in time, going back in time
Tell her she'll be fine

Going back in time, going back in time
Tell her she'll be fine
