I hug my pillow
Hating you're not here
24 ours like a thousands years
You're the sun, rain
the air that I breath
And without you there's no me

Every little thing you do
And every little thing you say
Is making my daises grow
Every call, every touch
Cherish so much
Cause you're making my daises grow

This afternoon I found a spot that you've missed
A place on my body that you've still haven't kissed
Come home to me I'm begging you please
When you're here I feel complete

Every little thing you do
And every little thing you say
Is making my daises grow
Every call, every touch
Cherish so much
Cause you're making my daises grow

With you I feel so beautiful
It's unbelievable
You making this girl glow
Let's make this love grow

Every little thing you do
And every little thing you say
Is making my daises grow
Every call, every touch
Cherish so much
Cause you're making my daises grow

It's almost magic just to hear you breathe
I can feel you smiling back at me
When you're gone I'm missing you so

Cause you're making my daises grow
