Wake up to a sunny day not a cloud up in the sky then it starts to rain my defences hit the ground and shatter all around so open and exposed but I found strenght in the struggle faced a face with my troubles

When you're broken in a little million pieces and you're trying but you can't hold on anymore every tear falls down for a reason dontcha stop believing in yourself when you're broken

Little girl don't be so blue I know what you're going through don't let it beat you up hitting walls and getting scars only makes you who you are only makes you who you are no matter how much you heart is aching there is beauty in the breaking yeah e yeah

When you're broken in a little million pieces and you're trying but you can't hold on anymore every
tear falls down for a reason dontcha stop believing in yourself when you're broken

Better days will find you once again every piece will find it's place when you're broken when you're broken um hum ooh

When you're broken in a little million pieces and you're tryin but you can't hold on any more every tear falls down for a reason when you're broken

When you're broken when you're broken when you're broken
