I can tell you things nobody knows
I've been everywhere nobody goes
Nothing gets me off the way that you do
You drive me crazy when you step in the room

Something bout your lips
Something about your kiss
Something bout your eyes
Keeps you on my mind
Thought it was nothing
Turns out it's something
You're the one that keeps me up every night

Who, who, who, who
Loves you
Who, who, who, who
Loves you

I think I do
Yeah, yeah
I think I do

You crawled under my skin and I feel you there
You're with me all the time
You come everywhere
When I need my space, I'll push you away
But then I want you back
You're hard to erase

Something bout your lips
Something about your kiss
Something bout your eyes
Keeps you on my mind
Thought it was nothing
Turns out it's something
You're the one that keeps me up every night

Who, who, who, who
Loves you
Who, who, who, who
Loves you
Who, who, who, who

Loves you
Who, who, who, who
Loves you

I think I do

Your hard to erase

Who, who
I think I do
I think I do
Who, who, who, who
I think I do
Who, who, who, who
Who loves you?

I can tell you things nobody knows
I been everywhere nobody goes
Nothing gets me off the way that you do
You drive me crazy when you step in the room

Who, who, who, who
(Who, who, who)
Loves you
(Who loves
Who, who, who, who
Loves you
Who, who, who, who
(I think I, I think I, I think I do)
Loves you
(Consider yourself lucky)
Who, who, who, who
Loves you

Who loves you?
I think I do
Who loves you?
Who loves you?
Me
