eyes of pain
each other's out again
we will show you will cross the pain and I know
I don't have to search for more
and again
I've been knocking on your bedroom door trying to grab out your soul I've been trying to hold you close and I'm screaming out for more here we are in heaven or hell let us go, to come home
dream in the evil arms
like the fear
the dark behind your mind in your eyes gathering thoughts of a part
and again
and I've screaming out for more
