what do you think we should believe when preachers tell lies in my hour of need ha you are not there daydreamer, I wish that you wouldn't have to tell me lies
we are the one and only, we're the truth we are the holy angels of war set the world on fire if we don't know the easiest way to grab your soul
lies
we are the reborn of god
we are the holiest in place
prepare to follow me
in times before times they never would have died a passion of pain fill poison in vain
lies
we are the holy angels and knew if I could feed you with lies speak the words of love in your sleep
lies
