I scream through the morning
I'm kicking in the twilight as she comes
Time waits at a darling
Spoonng the thickness out and feeding our open mouths

The price you pay is always

Chorus
Too high, I'm too familiar
Sunshine, Karma Killer

Time waits at the darling
When your following the animals around (around)
I spread through the morning
Feeding our open mouths and spoonng the thickness out
The price you pay is always
Chorus (x2)

My eyes are weary now
My eyes are weary
My eyes are weary now
Chorus (x2)

Karma Killer
Will I ever miss you?
