See I was once told
That I would litterate gold
Now I'm at the crossroads
Selling my soul
I've been laughed at
Slepped on and stepped on
Backstabbed twice but I always kept on

I'm falling
And I can hear my conscience calling
I see my life dissolving
While I'm one stallin
Why life's gotta be this way
It's the price we pay
Just to live another day

Get yourself up, you're falling
Gotta get yourself up, get up, don't stop, you're falling

She saw life's a bitch but I love her
Brother never judge a book by the cover
Same name but different faces
Same case but different places
Life's strange
Joy, pain
Sunshine, rain
Yo we've gotta maintain
Why life gotta be this way
It's the price we pay just to see another day

Get yourself up, you're falling
Gotta get yourself up, get up, don't stop, you're falling
(falling, falling, falling)

You're living on a lie
Better realize you're falling down
You're living on a lie
Better get yourself together now
Better get up from the ground
You're living on a lie (lie, lie, lie)
You're living on a lie (lie, lie, lie)

It spill blood, sweat and tears
I crept on my knees
And begged for deaf ears
I wouldn't learn
Until I got burned
Every laugh was changed
That was the day it got turned
Lifes Strange somebody wants me to obtain
Some people change, others stay the same
Why life's gotta be this way
See it's the price we pay just to live another day

Get yourself up you're falling
Gotta get yourself up, get up, don't stop, you're falling
(falling, falling, falling)

You're living on a lie
Better realize you're falling down
You're living on a lie
Better get yourself together now
Better get up from the ground
You're living on a lie
Better realize you're falling down
You're living on a lie
Better get yourself together now
Better get up from the ground
You're living on a lie
Better get yourself together now
Better get up from the ground

You're livin on a lie (lie, lie, lie, lie)
You're livin on a lie (lie, lie, lie, lie)
You're livin on a lie (lie, lie, lie, lie)

Get yourself up, you're falling
Gotta get yourself up get up, don't stop, you're falling
Get yourself up you're falling
Gotta get yourself up, get up, don't stop, you're falling

You're living on a lie
