I don't know why I am here
Listening to you anymore
I can't explain how I feel anymore
Do you even love me anymore

There is something
Crawling in the back of my head
Saying why do I take this anymore
There is something wrong

And I can't take it any more
There is something wrong
And I can't take it any more

Can you tell me why I am here hearing
Things in the back of my head?
Listening to things I have never heard before
Things I thought I never would hear
I guess things aren't the same anymore

There is something
Crawling in the back of my head
Saying why do I take this anymore
There is something wrong

And I can't take it any more
There is something wrong
And I can't take it any more

Who cares about me
Who cares about your things
Just aren't the same anymore

There is something
Crawling in the back of my head
Saying why do I take this anymore
There is something wrong

And I can't take it any more
There is something wrong
And I can't take it any more
