I'm not a perfect person Because in my life, many things didn't go to do And then in the future, i go to have my price i go to pay by ,my mistakes but i think that the life is very injust ans i must to find another way what i must to do

To change this life
TELL ME
why this life is so bad will i be just go have a piece in the hel to burn

But now i think that i already have A solution for my problem but, i have to continue to fight and never desisit...
