In the end, there was nothing to say.
I can't look for any other way.
This feeling is takin over day by day.
Don't tell me if your right cause this is the last time you;ll even see the light.

chorus: Open your eyes, open your heart cause we'll never break apart. Keep it or use it for an ending that fits. Nothing is here so theres nothing to fear.

This sucks that this is not working cause all your doin is twerking. Like all them other people you talk too much and your not even in a bunch. Looking every where and nothings here. With you it's a nightmare.
In my mind all I see is you actually fair.

No I've done this to you too much that I can't take it anymore. My heart is poor and sore without you and you just walking up that pew with only few.
Take this and I will no where and say
this OPEN YOUR EYES!

(chorus 4x)
