[Verse 1]

In the centre of the silence, violent thoughts that you go through
The thick smoke of flickerin' lights that brighten the room
All the things that you wanted to say get lost and thrown away
You can bait and hesitate to speak your mind
Can't turn back when you cross the line
Sometimes there's someone you know who just doesn't care
Has to see you go to know you were there

[Pre-Chorus]

This is the summer of the rain
Even if sometimes I feel I can't stand another minute
Made the gun to run and end this race
But I never look back and I forget
Know that this is the summer of the rain
Even if sometimes I feel I can't stand another minute
Made the gun to run and end this race
But I never look back and I forget it

[Chorus]

I know that all of this will soon be gone
You don't really have to prove them wrong

[Verse 2]

Sometimes you got no control of where you go
Taken down a road you don't know
And you feel so lost that you wanna hide your face
You don't recognise the place you're in Sometimes the sun doesn't shine your way
Sometimes the night doesn't turn to day Sometimes the lights so bright it burns through the night
And keeps the darkness at bay

[Pre-Chorus]

This is the summer of the rain
Even if sometimes I feel I can't stand another minute
Made the gun to run and end this race

But I never look back and I forget
Know that this is the summer of the rain
Even if sometimes I feel I can't stand another minute
Made the gun to run and end this race
But I never look back and I forget it

[Chorus]

I know that all of this will soon be gone
You don't really have to prove them wrong
I know soon enough you'll make them see
You'll be far away from them with me

[Bridge]

Follow the link in the chain without a name
Sealin' the light in the dark contains the rain
Taking you away from the place you've been trapped
Break all you know to bring it all back

[Pre-Chorus]

This is the summer of the rain
Even if sometimes I feel I can't stand another minute
Made the gun to run and end this race
But I never look back when I forget it
Know that this is the summer of the rain
Even if sometimes I feel I can't stand another minute
Made the gun to run and end this race
But I never look back when I forget it

[Chorus]

I know that all of this will soon be gone
You don't really have to prove them wrong
I know soon enough you'll make them see
You'll be far away from them
Alone with me
