i wanna rangle away
no no no no

at times i wish i was in iternal sleep im only at peace when i can hold you in my dreams it seems i treasure all the little things(little things) I've come to realize what you meen to me

you bring sunshine into my life
you take the clouds away
the rain away, the pain away for another day I feel your love is all around me blessings of love have finally found me but still i wait to find no one by my side
when will the world stay calm around me?
when will the sun shine down on me?
When will i see if i know ever at times it feels like never when will the rain stop pooring on me?
when will i find someone to love me?
when will the clouds dissapear?
and i find you standing here

Sometimes i wake up so satisfied yes
you take me beyond the sky each and every night sometimes I tried a nap in the middle of the day just to see your face you make it all ok
the rain away, the pain away for another day
I feel your love is all around me
blessings of love have finally found me

oh..nananana....

i feel your love is all around me
blessings of love have finally found me
no one by my side
when will the world stay calm around me?

oh, when will i find you yes, oh when will the rain stop pooring on me?
