I should warn you, keep away
I'm seeing things in a twisted way,
Anyway,
And tonight,
I'll be a nightmare.
I see your face in a different light
Tonight
Laughter passes me by
Talk goes over my head
Think I should we avoid us
Why don't you avoid me,

Anyway
I don't want to know the time
Things that excite me
Don't seem such fun today
Laughter passes me by
Talk goes over my head
Think I should we avoid us
Why don't you avoid me,
Anyway
I'm seeing things in a twisted way
