The night is young and we've only just met, I know
Why bother talking when we've already said hello?
I can't believe you really care where I'm from and what I do

I keep on waiting for that moment to come
When it'll just be me and you

When are we gonna do it?
I hope it's soon

The night is older and my patience is wearing thin
Let's cut the talking, let the sordid affair begin You're sending signals, are you leading me on?
It's hard to choose, I never dreamed I'd have to Scurry this along and pretend to be amused

When are we gonna do it?
I hope it's soon

I'm biting my tongue but I just can't take this another minute
I don't want to go home and get into bed, unless you're in it
This conversation is getting in the way
I've told you everything I need to say
The only thing I really want to know is

When are we gonna do it?
I hope it's soon
