I walk the land and release all the way to my shoes and I sailing the sea's and watched out all my dream come true I'm through the sky there see everything from a new view And I row the streets and reality brought me back to you that's when I realise that we gotta be a life yeah

yeaaahh it's nothing yeaaahh there's nothing
