Everybody's talking loud
Tryin' to get me to join the crowd
But I can't hear what they're talkin' about
'Cause they ain't sayin' nothin'

They say come follow me
What I'm telling you will set you free
All you gotta do is act like me
But I can't feel nothin'

I just want somebody to laugh out loud
I just want somebody to make me smile

Whoa, I'm, I'm trying to find a reason to believe
I'm trying to find a reason to believe

Wait a minute

I just can't tell what's right or wrong
And I'm not sure where I belong
And where is that simple song?
I remember

They say everything's in black and white
And the sun shines at twelve at night
And to praise God you gotta fight
It's crazy, crazy

I just want somebody to laugh out loud
I just want somebody to make me smile

Whoa, 'cause I'm, I'm trying to find a reason to believe
I'm trying to find a reason to believe

Don't wanna live
Don't wanna lie to myself anymore
Don't wanna try to understand
The pain I see through my eyes

Let me laugh, just let me cry
Just let me see right from wrong
Just let me love, let me feel

'Cause I want in my life all the things that's real

'Cause I, I'm trying to find a reason to believe

I'm trying to find a reason to believe

I'm trying to find a reason to believe

I'm trying to find a reason to believe

I'm trying to find a reason to believe

I'm trying to find a reason to believe
