Oeeh yeahh
Oeeehh nanana
Wowowowow

Baby we were so in love
Only one that I could trust
I would never give that up
Cuz no one like her
Knew you were my everything
Was so glad that you with me
Had to tell my family
I found that girl

And out a know where you were gone without a reason why
So Im here in this place by myself
All you had to do was try
If you could see it through my eyes
It would explain the tears I cried
Why did you walk out of my life
Wasnt it clear to see that you were meant for me
If you could see it through my eyes
You know the reason why I tried
So hard to never let them die
I wish that you could see.. see it thought my eyes

What Im supposed to do
Just go on without you
Easier said than done
I need some answers
Can even lift my head
Thinking about the things she said
Only thing that I have left
Is my love for her

And out a now where you were gone without a reason
why

So Im here in this place by myself
All you had to do was try

If you could see it through my eyes

It would explain the tears I cried
Why did you walk out of my life
Wasnt it clear to see that you were meant for me
If you could see it through my eyes
You know the reason why I tried
So hard to never let them die
I wish that you could see.. see it thought my eyes

Im hoping and praying (hoping and praying)
That you will return (that you will return)
All my love is here waiting for you
Baby just open the door

If you could see it through my eyes (ooooo see it in your eyes)
It would explain the tears I cried (tears I cried)
Why would you walk out of my life
Wasnt it clear to see that you were meant for me
(meant for me woohowho)
If you could see it through my eyes
You know the reason why I tried (why I tried)
So hard to never let them die
I wish that you could see.. see it thought my eyes
My eyes
