As I wake up in the morning on life's big rollercoaster looking for the devil in disguise As I look into the haze and maze and the lightning and the thunder
I hope an angel's on my side, on my side

caus' time, time, time don't give a damn about tomorrow,
time (background singers)
time don't really care about no yesterdays,
time (background singers)
time is only watching all the pain we bear all of the joy we share
do we care
time to wonder

as I look at all the faces, I've just got to stop and wonder what are we searching for everybody spys and lies and tries to talk about the future
as we're marching off to war anybody keeping score
oh yeah

tomorrow
time, (background singers)
time don't really care about no yesterdays,
time (background singers),

take a look around at all the time we wasted take a look around and know that you're just passing through when you find the truth that lies inside the darkness will it ever come to be that you'll find the key that will set you free, that will set you free, that will set you free

it's only time
it's time to wonder ooh yeah, it's time to wonder what are you going to do with your life?

what are you going to do with the time that you're living in?
it's time to wonder, it's time to wonder, it's time to wonder, it's time to wonder
