

Lions And Tigers And Bears "Apathy Grows Young"

Visit "Apathy Grows Young" on MotoLyrics.com

Apathy is taking over
Young minds won't take the call
And one day they will discover
They had the power to change it all
I hope you know the world is in your hands
Why won't you speak, do you not understand
Understand
Days go on whether people care or not
Is there any way this can be fought?
Will this unconcern be our certain fate?
We may find out when it's too late
Do you not understand
Do you not understand
Do you not understand
Do you not understand
