

Lions And Tigers And Bears "Falls Without A Sound"

Rain falls the first time in weeks
It puts a smile on both their cheeks Dancing in the streets they can finally drink Perspective is a funny thing when the only thing that separates us is a little bit of fortune
And a few thousand miles
Another body falls without a sound Another world away we sit I find sometimes we like to forget
Look down look down don't notice it Another world away we sit I find sometimes we like to
forget
Look down look down don't notice it
You always dreamed of what you'd be The brightest future you could see Imagine wondering if you'd make it to next week Perspective is a funny thing when the only thing that
separates us is a little bit of fortune
And a few thousand miles
The stars continue to infinity
It makes me feel so inconsequential I finally see I wonder if the here and now is all that there will ever be Ever be, is all that there will ever be
