Yes, yeah we're movin' on
Looking for direction
Mmm mm we've covered much ground
Thinking back to innocence
I can no longer connect
I don't have a heart left to throw around

Oh, and time moves on like a train
That disappears into the night sky
Yeah, I still get a sad feeling inside to see the red tail lights wave goodbye

We'll grow old together
We'll grow old together
This old love will never
This old love will never die

Well money slips into your hands
And then slips out like it was sand
And those shoes that you could never seem to fill
I've chased so much and lost my way
Maybe a face for every day
That so casually slipped me by

Oh, time moves on like a train
That disappears into the night sky
Yeah, I still get that sad feelin' inside to see the red tail
lights wave goodbye

We'll grow old together
We'll grow old together
This old love will never
This old love will never die

Morning comes
Sometimes with a smile
Sometimes with a frown
Yeah so I never have to worry
If your gonna stay around

We'll grow old together

We'll grow old together
This old love will never

Yes, yeah we're movin' on Movin' right along
