Are you ready to take a chance and risk it all?
It's do or die, fight or flight
Do you want to feel alive?

So would you play a game of Russian roulette to save your life?
Are you in? Are you in?
Or will you flee to safety and wonder what could've been?
Don't be afraid, don't ever be afraid

No, no, you've been hiding, you've been hiding
You've been hiding in the shadows

When you're afraid, when you're afraid
Take a chance, don't let it weigh you down
You gotta get out of there

When you're afraid, when you're afraid
Take a chance, don't let it weigh you down
You gotta get out

You're trapped in a cave, confined
Falling back to the comfort of your world
The last time you walked away from this
You were looking back to see what you missed

When you're afraid, when you're afraid
Take a chance, don't let it weigh you down
You gotta get out of there

When you're afraid, when you're afraid
Take a chance, don't let it weigh you down
You gotta get out

Take a chance, take a breath
Take a shot with a gun to your head
Take a chance, take a breath
Take a shot like the gun is to your head
Like the gun is to your head

When you're afraid, when you're afraid

Take a chance, don't let it weigh you down
You gotta get out of there

When you're afraid, when you're afraid
Take a chance, don't let it weigh you down
You gotta get out

Stop hiding in the shadows
