The next chance that I get,
I'm just going to take it.
Take this and everything.
so say goodbye now
no I won't be back around,
and well it's all over now.
There in the heart that will never be filled,
and we will wait,
we will wait in that place.
still all I'm looking for is something,
something that I've found.
(I cant go back)
if I were two-faced, would I be wearing this one?
everything that happened between us was real.
so say goodbye now
no, I won't be back around
and well it's all over now.
There in the heart that will never be filled,
and we will wait,
we will wait in that place.
still all I'm looking for is something,
something that I've found.
across the ocean,
(hear her screams.)
across the ocean,
(hear her screams.)
