The next chance that I get,
I'm just going to take it.
Take this and everything.
So say goodbye now
(So say goodbye now)
No, I won't be back around,
And well, it's all over now.

There in the heart that will never be filled,
And we will wait,
We will wait in that place.
Still, all I'm looking for is something,
Something that I've found.
(We can't go back)

If I were two-faced, would I be wearing this one?
Everything that happened between us was real.
So say goodbye now
(So say goodbye now)
No, I won't be back around,
And well, it's all over now.

There in the heart that will never be filled,
And we will wait,
We will wait in that place.
Still, all I'll looking for is something,
Something that I've found.
(We can't go back)

Across the ocean,
Hear her screams.
Across the ocean,
Hear her screams.
