A couple of kids met one day
And the hours seem to fade away
They vowed not to part,
Come what may

Now they travel the world and they explore
Country to country, Door to door
You'll never see this couple wasting any time,
All the way

There they are,
They'll make it far
And while they're jumpin' from star to star
All the world looks by with jealousy eyes

They're so high,
They seem to fly
'Cause they found the love that will never die
All the world admires their desire

Like a King and Queen among the pawns
With a love that keeps them growing strong
It almost seems like they can do no wrong

The only secret to their success
Is to always give their very best
They made a few mistakes but the courage that it takes
Is to carry on

There they are,
They'll make it far
And while they're jumpin' from star to star
All the world looks by with jealousy eyes

They're so high,
They seem to fly
'Cause they found the love that will never die
All the world admires their desire

Well there comes a time when you point to a star

And tho it may seem so very far
Never be afraid...
There they are

ooh-ooh-ooh
