"Drag Me Down"

You won't call me what though the way is long?
and you haven't got a dime for the operator it crossed my mind then it struck me to the bone as you stood there with a smile like a bottom shaker uh uh
hear my callings i've really let myself in for something there the bunch of the trouble maker
uh uh
can you hear me?
uh uh
they only stand to gain it's a wicked game
the game of the operator i want it done and I don't mind i can't believe there is a way hey you drag me down (hey i'm coming up) and you knock me out (hey i'm coming up) you're dragging me down (hey i'm coming up)
and you take me out
what has come?
what have you done to me?
it this the way to speak to somebody you change it here, you taint it there if somebody's there I'm ready for the battle although few things just getting good don't keep me waiting when I'm in the mood
hey you drag me down (hey i'm coming up)
and you knock me out (hey i'm coming up)
you're dragging me down (hey i'm coming up)
