Send me back I'm waiting here in line
Since when you said it was supposed to be so
I called you up when I was feeling dead
What can I do I'm acting like a mojo
My chimney-stack is burning all the way
I'm on your track I've got nothing to say now
I need you to make me feel relaxed
So call me back and don't say you ain't got no tracks
All the things that we cannot afford,
We can deny 'em but it's your decision on the other. . .
You made me high though I was coming down,
You made me fly as if you were a clown.
Send me back I'm waiting here in line,
Since when you said it was supposed to be so,
I called you up when I was feeling dead,
What can I do I'm acting like a mojo.

Building me up,
Burning me out,
Why should I quit,
I'm rockin' no doubt,
Tell me what's wrong,
What can I do,
Forget about that,
The joke is on you.
Building me up,
Burning me out,
Why should I quit,
I'm rockin' no doubt,
Tell me what's wrong,
What can I do,
Forget about that,
The joke is on you.
You made me cry and did not know my name,
But I loved you so you`re the one to blame,
What can I do to make you feel the same,
You're treating me as if it was a game.
Whatever comes I`ll watch you on your way,
Whoever comes might know what is supposed to say,
He will show his collection by gas-light,
Making love - loving at first sight.
Building me up,

Burning me out,
Why should I quit,
I'm rockin' no doubt,
Tell me what's wrong,
What can I do,
Forget about that,
The joke is on you.
Building me up,
Burning me out,
Why should I quit,
I'm rockin' no doubt,
Tell me what's wrong,
What can I do,
Forget about that,
The joke is on you.
Building me up,
Burning me out,
Why should I quit,
I'm rockin' no doubt,
Tell me what's wrong,
What can I do,
Forget about that,
The joke is on you.
Building me up,
Burning me out,
Why should I quit,
I'm rockin' no doubt,
Tell me what's wrong,
What can I do,
Forget about that,
The joke is on you.
The joke is on you.
The joke is on you.
The joke is on you.
