"Jump Off"

The city explodes tonight, erasing feelings that i used to feel throw away the key, all locked up inside the bridges will burn tonight, i wanna know what it?s like to remember all the days we?ve never had i?m burning cold, i?m freezing out, i?m not the same that i used to be you and i, bad memories and good times, the jump up to the sky together we get high we have waited too long, i wasn?t trying to impress myself
all the good things in my life getting away from me
don?t turn your back on me, things i couldn?t see spread your wings and fly over to me, oh my god it?s everytime the same, feelings without names cross your heart and come over to me, oh my god the jump off
