The fields are near and they wont trust the air with secrets

I can't stop holding this treasure in my arms for all the water in the ocean could never turn this world's lungs from black to white let them say. let them say. let them say what they please

you wont be leaving my arms ever. I promise you that.
even if you want me to let go honey even if you want me to let go
you wont be leaving my arms ever. I promise you that.
even if you say the things that make me want to lose you

we went on drinking, celebrating something I looked at you and said that I'm forever yours you looked at me and said oh the idea of being in love the idea. the idea. of being forever. yeah.

even if you want me to let go
even if you say the things that make me want to lose
you

screaming from the inside of me, lonely and pleading phantasm we only get what we see; gazing so desperately between the things that we fear; gazing so desperately alive with illusions; were watching segregating illusions between the things that we see and the things that we fear no no it wont make this easier.

you wont be leaving my arms ever. I promise you that

even if you say the things that make me want to lose
you
