"I'd go blind before I die,
rather than look you, boy,
in the eyes.
And I would touch a tender nerve,
rather than make sense of what,
you imply.

Chorus:

Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
I won't let you, I won't let you...

I would cry, a million tears,
just for you, to notice me.
Don't despair, I'm here not there.
Reading all the signs wrong,
'cause I feel you don't care.

Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
I won't let you, (everywhere)
I won't let you, I won't let you (everywhere)
I won't let you, I won't let you...

ah-ah-ah-hoo, ah-ah-ah-hoo, ah-ah-ah-hoo, ah-ah-ah-hoo, ah-ah...

Find the time, to hitch a ride,
re-release this weight that I bear,
on my shoulders.
Don't despair I'm here, not there.
Reading all the signs wrong,
'cause I feel that you don't care

Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
Everywhere the sign. (the sign I see everywhere)
I won't let you, I won't let you, I won't let you..."
