And when you break a heart
It's always after you - haunted

And as a torturer does
The torturer gives to you - broken, broken

We're animals

I just don't wanna know
The places people go

And so on
And so on

And so on
And so on

I'm sad because I love
I love you every day
Haunted, broken

And so on
And so on

And so on
And so on

And when you run away
I'm running after you
On day dreams and such
