You can carry me home now
You can carry me home
Im drunk and youre tired
We havent talked for a while

You can carry a lie till it makes you fall down
You cant help me
Be quiet
I couldnt touch you right now

You couldnt care if I died
But I havent finished quite yet
Couldnt you give me a moment
Let me catch my breath

Lies, liar, lies, liar, lies, liar

You can carry me home now
You can carry me home
Im drunk and its christmas
We havent talked for a while
You can carry me home now
Would you just carry me home
