Green are your eyes in the morning when you rise
Don't you be afraid to lie by me my love
Your father will not know

Love can be broken though no words are spoken
Don't you be afraid to lie by me my love
Your father will not know

Love don't cry I'll never lie
Don't you be afraid to lie by me my love
Your father will not know

Green are your eyes in the morning when you rise
Don't you be afraid to lie by me my love
Your father will be told someday about our wedding day
