*Just The way you touch my lips, with your finger tips, made my body itch, I cant resist. I remember when I knew you were the one.

You made me lose my mind, words cant define, the way I feel inside, when I look in your eyes. I remember when I knew you were, knew you were the one.

Lately babe Ive been blind, messing around wasting my time.

I need you back babe, cause your driving me crazy.

What we had is hard to find, I cant seem to get you off my mind.

Thinking about you babe, and now I cant get enough of
you, you

*Just The way you touch my lips, with your finger tips, made my body itch, I cant resist. I remember when I knew you were the one.

You made me lose my mind, words cant define, the way I feel inside, when I look in your eyes. I remember when I knew you were, knew you were the one.

Touch me like you did before, I cant deny it anymore.

I need you back babe, cause your driving me crazy.

Though I tried to turn away, Ive been missing you everyday.

Thinking about you babe, and now I cant get enough of
you, you

Chorus

I know your pondering, I see the way you be staring @ me, eyeing me, contemplating your next move oh so carefully, trying to heed with precaution, caught you watching my every move. Just like a movie, get ready to give me rave reviews. May think Im faking, but every thought your taking is mistaken, been spending my waking hours reflection on how Im breaking inside.
Now come a little closer as I close my eyes to touch me the way you touch me and to make me feel like it was our first time.

Chorus
