He's Got me Going crazed
Thinking about him night and day These stupid games we play making us want to walk away and now I'm sittin and trippin reflecting, thinking about you and me and how we can be, Yeah Yeah Yeah..

I'm sitting watching lovers under Maple Leafs wishing you were here with me to see how our loves suppose to be, then he turns and smiles and says hello, He says their's something you should know.
Tell him that you love him, Show him that you care Tell him that you'll always be there, rub his shoulders, comb his hair.
Listen with just your heart in mind, don't get defensive everytime.
That's how it should be, let's work on you and me.

See I don't know everything and I know I'll never know, I'll never know, but baby I know one thing, I want you to take my hand please be my man cause I can't live happily, without you here, I want you near cause I love you dear, and this feeling hurts so bad, Can't this pass

Now I'm standing watching pennies drown in wishing wells, I'm wishing your listening, my prayers can't fail me now. How is our love suppose to breath, I'm catching tides and tides of lies and yet you tell me your inlove with me.
See I could try to run the other way, but I want to trust, baby you must, My heart can't take this pain, please tell me why...

See I don't know everything and I know I'll never know, I'll never know, but baby I know one thing, I want you to take my hand, please be my man cause I can't live happily, without you here, I want you near cause I love you dear, and this feeling hurts so bad, Can't this pass now...

He's Got me Going crazed
Thinking about him night and day

These stupid games we play, making us want to walk away
and now I'm sittin and trippin reflecting, thinking about you and me and how we can be Yeah, come on now baby let's try our best never let it go, cause you're inlove with me and I love you so, Please take my hand....

See I don't know everything and I know I'll never know, I'll never know, but baby I know one thing, I want you to take my hand, please be my man cause I can't live happily, without you here, I want you near cause I love you dear, and this feeling hurts so bad, Can't this pass

and says hello.
