She's got a boyfriend all of a sudden
She's never had one before
She's looking for the thumbs-up
When they're walking through the door

She's showing him off by making him talk
She's putting his hand in his pocket
It shows on her face what she doesn't say
What she doesn't say

You don't know me
You don't know me at all
You don't know me
You don't know me at all
You don't know me
You don't know me at all

She doesn't know that we know that we've been here before
We always pay attention when she walks through the door
It's the clothes that she chooses
It's the words that she uses

You don't know me
You don't know me at all
You don't know me
You don't know me at all
You don't know me
You don't know me at all

She's trying hard to pretend that it's not really happening
But we can see her smiling from afar
We don't see her much anymore
But we can hear her whistling as she walks to her car

You don't know me
You don't know me at all
You don't know me
You don't know me at all
You don't know me

You don't know me at all
