Waiting for Wednesday, my stomach doesn't hurt enough

Pain always is the sign

Waiting for Wednesday, no proof of mine exists

So I don't have to take it back

Don't want to show you good-bye

Show you good-bye

Show you good-bye

Show you good-bye

But you're waiting for Wednesday

Waiting for Wednesday

Waiting for Wednesday

I pray you'll put me on the spot

I do believe you, that you'll love me, that you'll leave me

Don't want to show you good-bye

Show you good-bye

What will I do when you come near to me?

You'll put me on the spot

You've been doing this a long, long time

Not that you're better than me, but that you do it a lot

Now I'm waiting for Wednesday

Waiting for Wednesday

Waiting for Wednesday

I'm waiting for Wednesday

I'm gonna show you good-bye

Show you good-bye

Show you good-bye

Show you good-bye

Now I'm waiting for Wednesday, you're back from out of town

The west is dry, your mind is clear and I don't want to be here

I don't want to be here, I don't want to be here, to show you good-bye

And I'm waiting for Wednesday
Waiting for Wednesday
I'm waiting for Wednesday
To show you good-bye

I don't want to be here
(Waiting for Wednesday)
Waiting for Wednesday
(To show you good-bye)
(Wednesday)
To show you good-bye
(Waiting for Wednesday)

I don't want to be here
(Waiting for Wednesday)
I don't want to be here
(Waiting for Wednesday)
(To show you good-bye)
To show you good-bye
Show you good-bye
(Wednesday)
I don't want to be here

Waiting for Wednesday
To show you good-bye
To show you good-bye
