When all the stars were falling
I reached up like you said
All the stars were falling
One hit me in the head

And I fell down, down, down
I fell down, down

When all the stars were falling
They fell from above
And I thought of hate, and I thought of hate
And then I thought of love

I fell down, down, down
I fell down, down

And I've learned how to dance from a Vincent Van Gogh
And the nights were wrapped in a white sheet
And now no one even says hello 'cause I couldn't stand on my two feet
I fell down, I fell down

Down, down, down
Down, down, down

Now the peace you will find, in your own you have found
The lights of the city are the stars on the ground
I may not be a quaalude living in a speed zone
But I could be someone's home if I fell down
(I could be restful)

And I fell down, down
Now all the stars have fallen
