This jame is dedicated to me that's right you guys it's just for...

[Chorus]

Me i believe in me
cuz i take care of me it took so long to see all i really need is me faith and family has finally made me see no matter what i face all i need is me

Everybody says they no me better than i know myself but i don't know nobody else has felt what i have felt did what i did or been where i been but i have to defend myself again and again let it end where it begins who cares what the cause is to many bosses cause divorces and i don't take losses well i play with a team but i'm a Diana Ross not a Supreme you think you got me all figured out ohh so i'm so shallow the only thing i'm tryin to get is a bigger house no part of my need is a company where i can hire my own people to live out there dreams so tell me what's happenin to all of ya'll people with low self-esteem
what you want me to cry on your shoulder so you can turn around and laugh and talk about it when it's over

[Chorus]

I done sold 30 mill, dated, then made you want it when it got to convenient i just gave it up i don't need the stress i don't need the pain

i do need the checks but don't need the games ohh my how could him and I be the same when the house burnt down only i made the blame when the money got funny i took it to court when most of ya'll scrubs wouldn't have even fought it when the group had issues i laid in thought corrected the bad news i heard the interviews how amny of you really know Lisa? not many it's not contrary, it's fear i don't know you either it's responsible for more than you'll ever know or see so many things you don't know happened because of me from Blaque to the designs of the stage that was me so how could any of ya'll be mad at me?

[Chorus]

Everybody says all they want is the truth well the truth is i still got love my group but you really don't want the truth when it's concernin you you want to hear that no one's doin better than you you love to hear the pain you love to hear the struggle you love to know that paradise has got trouble
the only trouble we ever had is you bein involved you gettin involved where you don't belong when my faith started to waver it was like i was done i felt like Brian McKnight I was "Back At One" the only one that was the only one that ever
the only one i need
the one and only me because if i hadn't told you it was on different planes you would think that i meant our flights ain't the same my only crime was i was so blind didn't know that i had everything i wanted all the time

[Chorus 3x]
